Camp Croft, near Spartanburg, S. C., was named after Maj. Gen. Edward Croft, a native of nearby Greenville, S. C., who died in 1938. Army recruits assigned to the Camp Croft Infantry Replacement Training Center for their basic military initiation are put through a rigid course of training, which enables them to be fit for duty with permanent service units upon completion of program here.

CITY NEWS AGENCY, SPARTANBURG, S. C.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

L-32—Pitching Shelter Tents, Camp Croft, South Carolina

1B-H940